

WHY AREN'T YOU ME?

By Richard Paul

I guess I must have gotten used to you,
---*--- *--- --- ------ *---
I guess you're now too big a part of me.
---*--- *--- *--- *--- *---
Maybe I should try to be rid of you,
* *--- *--- *---
Or maybe wait for you to die with me?
---*--- *--- *--- *--- *---

Memories by day,
---*--- *--- *---
Complaining at night,
*--- *---
Do you have a point?
*--- *--- *---
Will you go away?
*--- *--- *---

(CHORUS)

Easy to hate me,
*--- *---
More than anyone.
---*--- *---
Hateful to love me,
*--- *---
Now what have you done?
---*--- *--- *---
Good days in my hands,
*--- *---
I can count them all,
*--- *--- *---
Tarnished when you speak,
*--- *--- *---
Banished when you call.
*--- *--- *---

(CHORUS END)

It's gotten simple and it's gotten slow,
---*--- *--- *--- *---
I've gotten older and you've turned lazy,
*--- *--- *--- *---
I guess I'm weak to cling to what I know,
---*--- *--- *--- *--- *---
I guess this isn't the best way to be.
---*--- *--- *--- *---

You have brought us here,
---*--- *--- *---
What else could you do?
*--- *---
All throughout my life,
*--- *--- *---
Must I hear you sneer?
---*--- *--- *---

(CHORUS)

Why won't you listen, why won't you see?
---*--- *--- *--- *---
Why are you angry? Why aren't you me?
---*--- *--- *--- *---

(CHORUS)

Copyright © 2020 Richard Paul
www.rmepaul.com
rmepaul@googlemail.com