

SIGIL

By Richard Paul

For the tin whistle in the key of D

Set your will in but a few letters

With no distractions or denials

And such intent in symbol fetter

By this deed is your sigil styled

With the strongest of your sensations

Let force unto your will be discharged

For desire's manifestation

The sigil you wrought is this way charged